

University of Pittsburgh

Office of the Provost
Graduate Studies

University Council on Graduate Study
Thursday, September 29, 2022
3 p.m. to 5 p.m.
In-Person
2501 Posvar Hall (Provost's Suite)

*If you are unable to attend this meeting, please send a substitute in your place and notify Shannon Mischler at sjm130@pitt.edu

1. Welcome
2. School-level Faculty and Student Meet and Greet
3. Orientation to UCGS
4. Overview of national and University of Pittsburgh graduate data and trends
5. Approval of May 2022 Minutes
6. Academic Planning Proposals
 - a. Establish a Micro-Credential in the School of Medicine in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the Biomedical Sciences
 - b. Establish a Joint Degree between the Dietrich Arts & Sciences, Master of Science in Quantitative Economics and the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, Master's in Public Administration
7. Announcements
 - a. New department in the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences for Counseling and Behavioral Health
 - b. Letters of nomination for the Provost's Award for Excellence in Doctoral Mentoring will be accepted until Friday, October 14, 2022.
 - c. Letters of nominations for The Provost's Award for Excellence in Doctoral Mentoring and the Chancellor's Distinguished Teaching, Research, and Public Service Awards will be accepted until Friday, October 14, 2022.