

In-person Modality*

Rotated Cohort in Classroom

Students will alternate between an in-person and remote experience with the aim of allowing each student to participate in an in-person “classroom experience” at least one day per week.

*Some classes will meet in person during elevated risk posture and most will during guarded risk posture. Please check with your instructor.

