

Office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Research
CHANCELLOR'S DISTINGUISHED RESEARCH AWARD
2023 Guidelines

The Award

The Chancellor's Distinguished Research Award annually recognizes outstanding scholarly accomplishments of members of the University of Pittsburgh's faculty. Up to six awards will be made, with three at each of two career stages: The committee, will at its discretion make awards, and have previously made up to six awards, with at least half at each of the two career stages.

- Senior Scholar Awardees will have compiled a substantial and continuing record of outstanding research and scholarly activity. Nominees must have achieved preeminence in their field and be of international reputation, as evidenced in letters of support from national and international leaders in the field. Referees cannot be mentors or current colleagues of the nominees.
- Junior Scholar Awardees will have demonstrated great potential as scholars as evidenced by the exceptional quality of their independent contributions and will have achieved national or international recognition. Candidates for this award are required to have received their highest degree no more than 12 years before the time of nomination.

Nominations will be considered within three broad categories:

- Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, and Related Professions
- Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics
- Medicine and Health Sciences

Each awardee will receive a cash prize of $2,000 and a grant* of $3,000 to support their teaching and research. All persons selected for this award will be honored publicly.

Eligibility

Any tenured or tenure-stream, full-time faculty member who has served at least three years at the University of Pittsburgh is eligible to be nominated for a Chancellor's Distinguished Research Award. Junior Scholar Awardees may be nominated for the Senior Scholar Award, but Senior Scholar Awardees may not be nominated for a second Senior Scholar Award.

Nominations

Any group of three or more faculty members may submit a nomination at upitt.infoready4.com. Completed nominations are due by Friday, October 14, 2022

You will be asked to submit the following information through InfoReady:

- Narrative summary of the research achievements of nominee (200-word max);
- Description of nominator's relationship to the nominee (300-word max.)
- Internal letter of nomination (2-page max). Please note that the internal letter of nomination must have multiple signers;
- Bio of nominee (1-page max);

- Biosketch or CV (Optional) of the nominee;
- Media blurb/citation (20-word max) *if you are awarded this would go along with your photo;
- Short narrative on the nature and significance of contribution (150-word max);
- Names, brief 50-word professional descriptions, and current electronic addresses of three (minimum) to five (maximum) referees who will be asked for letters of reference. Please note that out of the three minimum references, at least two should be external references. Relevant professional relationships with the nominee should be indicated, but referees normally should not be graduate or post-doctoral mentors. For more information on references, please view the FAQ's document.

For questions about nominations, you may contact Ashley Meinert in the Office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Research at arm240@pitt.edu.

Nominations from the previous year may be reactivated through InfoReady. Renomination will require re-entry of elements from the list above, but a case marked as a renomination does not require new references. Individuals submitting a renomination are asked to include a listing of recent accomplishments by the nominee since the last nomination. Instructions on the nomination site will allow references from the prior year to be reposted. A biosketch may be submitted, and a fresh internal letter of support can be uploaded that covers recent accomplishments (2-page max).

Individuals may be considered for three consecutive years.

Awards Committee

The Awards Committee is appointed and chaired by the Senior Vice Chancellor for Research (non-voting). It consists of faculty with outstanding research records from across the University.
