

COVID-19 Faculty Survey Results

May 2020

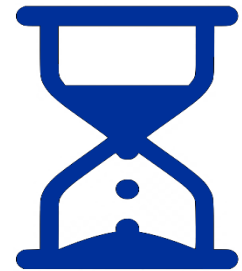

85%

Said they were aware of where to look for information and updates about COVID-19 and the University's status

82%

Agreed they received timely updates about the remote environment to encourage and support their teaching efforts

87%

Feel they received timely updates and informative communications from their leadership about COVID-19

50%

Indicated they are slightly or not at all concerned with the ability to safely access libraries or studio, performance, and rehearsal spaces again

Areas of Concern

41%

Are very or extremely concerned with the ability to prepare competitive proposal submissions

69%

Said their scholarly work has been impacted by restrictions on access to libraries, labs, or studio, performance and rehearsal spaces

