I. SCOPE

This policy establishes the requirements for earning a dual (double) degree and a joint degree.

II. POLICY

Dual (Double) Degree

An undergraduate student may simultaneously pursue two distinct academic degree programs within a school, for which two degrees are awarded, providing that the student:

- Completes all of the requirements for both degrees
- Completes a minimum of 30 credits beyond one degree
- Completes any additional requirements specified by the respective school or campus in which the degrees are earned

Joint Degree

A student may pursue an academic program which stipulates completion of all or most of the requirements of two distinct academic degree programs, administered by two or more schools within the University, for which two degrees are awarded.
