

Fall COVID-19 Faculty Survey

November 2-15, 2020

Responses are among all faculty on the Pittsburgh campus.

Research

72%

Indicated that their research and scholarly work is currently active

70%

Of faculty who said their research and scholarly work is active, stated that it is being conducted remotely

66%

Are satisfied/very satisfied with access to proper guidance on new safety protocols

55%

Said they are satisfied/very satisfied with the ability to safely access laboratory spaces

70%

Stated they are satisfied/very satisfied with the access to PPE for laboratory activities

Areas of Concern

53%

Are very or extremely concerned with the ability to address funding impacts on their current sponsored projects

41%

Are very or extremely concerned with the ability to prepare competitive proposal submissions

37%

Are very or extremely concerned with the ability to resume collaborations, domestic or international