

Fall COVID-19 Student Survey

November 2-15, 2020

Responses are among all undergraduate students on the Pittsburgh campus.

36%

Said that they are satisfied/very satisfied with remote learning for the fall semester

93%

Stated that they have enrolled or plan to enroll for the spring semester

Self-Care Day

38%

Indicated that they were not at all able to focus on themselves on the self-care day

79%

Had 2 or more assignments due on the self-care day or the day after

Fall 2020 Course Participation

77% – Indicated that they participated remotely for all classes, even those with in-person options

13% – Attended in-person for most classes with in-person options

10% – Attended in-person for all classes with in-person options

Spring 2020 Course Participation

34% – Indicated that they plan to participate remotely for all classes, even those with in-person options

20% – Plan to attend in-person for most classes with in-person options

26% – Plan to attend in-person for all classes with in-person options

21% – Are unsure